Mission Statement

LEARNING ALLIANCE is committed to developing the students as a whole, not only the intellect but also the personality by empowering them to become confident and competent lifelong learners. Our goal is to inspire our students to evolve into responsible, compassionate and dynamic citizens of the global society.

Executive Principal's Message

Dear Students,

As the CEO and Executive Principal of this institution, I am proud to be a part of this vibrant and dynamic community that values knowledge, growth, and character development.

Congratulations on another successful year! Your intellectual curiosity, creativity, and resilience is inspiring. I am amazed by your accomplishments in academics, sports, arts, and community service. Each one of you possesses unique talents and potential, and I encourage you to pursue your dreams with purpose and integrity.

It was a great moment of pride to see how you all rallied together to raise awareness and collect donations for the Flood Relief drive for your fellow Pakistanis. This was purely a student-led effort that empowered you to take charge and create a positive impact in society solely through your determination. Remember, education is not just about grades; it is about acquiring the skills, knowledge, and values that will shape you into well-rounded individuals. Furthermore, with the introduction of the Student Wellbeing Department we hope to improve our efforts at optimizing your mental and emotional health.

Once again, I was exceptionally proud of my students and staff for hosting the Sonnu Rahman All-Pakistan Junior Debating Championship 2023, which was a spectacular success. This is one of the most prestigious student competitions in Pakistan, and I must commend the efforts of our school community to make this a remarkable experience for all.

My appreciation goes out to the dedicated teachers and staff members. Their unwavering commitment to excellence has been the driving force behind your achievements. I also want to extend my gratitude to your parents and guardians who entrust us with your education and well-being. Their support and partnership play an invaluable role in your success.

As you embark on this journey of learning and growth, I am confident that the future holds great promise for each one of you. I wish you all an enjoyable summer holiday, and a rewarding academic year ahead, InshaAllah.

Your sincerely,

Anjum S. Ahmed

The boy who didn't like the medicine

There once was a little boy whose name was Tom and his mom Marie. He was sick, but he didn't want medicine. Marie tried and tried, but Tom didn't drink medicine. Marie took out soda and took out the soda from the bottle and put in the medicine and called Tom. Marie said "come here, I have one last of soda" so when he took one sip from the Soda he noticed he got trapped, and he said this is not soda. This is medicine. Mary laughed and laughed and couldn't stop laughing.

A Rainy Day

It was Wednesday in October and Ben was in his house and poor Ben ran down. It was raining and he didn't like rain because when it rained he had to stay indoors so he decided to go outside but his mum and dad didn't allow him. They told him to stay indoors. Ben didn't like this response so he didn't mind, but one thing he knew would happen. He didn't go out otherwise he would get sick so Ben waited and waited until it stopped raining. Then he rushed out to play with friends. He had a lot of fun all day long and enjoyed the rainbow in the sky with his fellow friend. He had a spectacular time!

How I Spent My Winter Holidays

My winter vacations were full of fun. My dad took us to Dubai for twelve days. We went to the Dubai Aquarium and saw so many Sharks and other kinds of fish. We visited Dino Park and got amazed by its huge structure and strange voices. Quranic Park was my favourite place on the entire trip. We used the Metro as our transportation and we loved to ride it. We celebrated my younger brother's birthday under Burj Khalifa.

In my last days, I went to the beach and spent most of my time playing with sand and water.

The Magic Lamp

I went to the store with my family and bought a beautiful Lamp. I put it in my room and was watching a show on Sony Bravia TV. Suddenly, the smoke came out of the lamp. A big genie came out of the Lamp. He was laughing. He said, I am your servant and I am your friend too. He asked me about my wishes. I told him to take me up in the sky because I want to fly like a bird. I was flying in the clouds. He took me on the ship. I saw an ocean. He bought an enormous box of Oreo biscuits for me. The genie was so smart. We sat on a carpet. He took me to the biggest zoo in the World. I saw many big animals. Then at night, he went back to his lamp. I was very happy.

I was walking in the desert. I saw a shiny lamp. It was very dirty. I rubbed it and took it home. I put it on my bedside table. When I was about to sleep, I saw a swirl of white clouds. I heard a thunder sound. A genie appeared in front of me. I got scared. The genie said we are friends and I will complete your three wishes. I told the genie that I want to fly. Suddenly I saw that I had my very own wings, and I was flying like a bird. Then I told the genie that I want to live in a new house with beautiful shiny things. I saw that I was in a huge palace with a lot of shiny things around me. There was a huge swimming pool outside the palace. My last wish was that I wanted to live in this palace with my parents. I saw that my mother and my family came to the palace. I was happy. The genie said that I had to go back to my family. The genie went back to the lamp and I threw the lamp into the sea.

My Fable Creation Board

One windy day a clever fox and a brown bear were having a serious conversation in their tent.

Suddenly there was thunder and it started to rain. The cunning fox and the naïve bear got really frightened. They came for camping but because of heavy rain their tent started to rip off from the top.

They were all alone in the dark forest as all the animals went to sleep in their homes, some in their nests and some underground. They wanted a place to spend the night. There were wild animals in the forest which scared them. They could hear animals growling and snoring, so they wanted shelter.

They walked and walked and asked for help but soon stood under the big green tree. Suddenly, they heard a roaring lion who came close to them and told them to follow him. They did not want to follow because they thought the lion would eat them up. Fox and bear had no other way since the rain started heavily. They followed the lion to his den and stayed there for the night. Next day, early in the morning the fox and the bear thanked the lion for his kind help and left his den to pick up their camping kits and left the dark forest soon. They could not believe the lion, who is the king of the jungle, to be helpful.

The wolf asked the prince why he was here? He answered, I'm looking for my princess. They both went back to the castle and asked the queen where the princess was. The queen angrily answered, I don't know! The prince started getting worried. Meanwhile, the princess was calling for help. She saw a knife, and she used it to cut the tape because she was tied up. She then went to the castle and she saw the prince, wolf and queen together. She saw the wolf changing into a man so she quickly told everything to the queen. She banished the wolf and told her fifty guards to take the wicked wolf to the forest and lock him in the huge dark cage.

After a few weeks the prince came back and took the princess for lunch. At lunch he asked her to marry him and she said Yes!

After this they both lived happily ever after.

MY FABLE CREATION BOARD

Once upon a time there was a proud lion. He was never kind and friendly because he thought of himself as the King of the Jungle. One day Foxy the fox, and Robby the rabbit went to the lion and told him that you are always mean to all the animals in the jungle. No one will ever listen to you or be your friend since you think too much of yourself. The lion was in rage. He was furious at what they just told him, but he thought about what Foxy and Robby thought about him. He wanted to command all the animals but then no one liked him because he was so strict and always wanted things his way, so he thought about fixing himself. Foxy and Robby said, Lone the lion, that if you are nice to us we will all be nice to you. We will listen to your orders if you have a good, nice environment in the forest. Lone the lion pondered over and realized what he was doing and quickly fixed himself. Now he not only ordered the animals to do things in the forest but also helped them in every way possible. The three animals lived happily and peacefully in the jungle.

Alien

One day, as I came back from school, I was really stressed out because I had a test and I had to revise my lines for a play. I came upstairs to my room.

As I came into my room, I was shocked. There was an alien in my bed and alien plaster right on top of my drawer.

The alien was sleeping and its face was shaped like a square. He only had one eye and he did not have any nose or mouth. His ears were as big as my hand. He did not have any hair and his body was oval and he did not have any legs. He had blasters instead of arms and legs. It could float and it was all green with purple shirt and trousers.

He walked up from my bed and quickly grabbed his alien blaster and pointed it right at me. I put my hands in the air and he did not shoot. Instead, it asked I was friendly or not. I said friendly, of course. I didn't want to get shot at, so the alien put down his blaster and it starting floating in the air. He pointed his arm at me and shot at me but thankfully those were just holograms of me.

I went up to him and asked him if he had a UFO. I asked him if we could go to his planet and he said yes. So, we got teleported there and we had a lot of fun. But, I had to go home so I got teleported back home and this really helped out with my stress.

I was super scared!! But the alien was lowkey cute. Anyways, I went a bit closer and said "hello" to the alien and shook his hand. I asked his name and he asked my name. His name was Lashinio.

We both got into more detail and soon we became best friends and I gave Lashinio his own Bedroom!!! And today, we went to get some ice-cream. People were standing at Lashinio in shock. We both were just playing fortnite when Lashinio got a call that his chicken died, but he was happy because he hated that chicken. I love Lashinio.

The Spooky Kind Lady

My cousin and I went hiking one day along a deserted country road. We saw a wisp of black smoke arising from an abandoned house. We were intrigued so we opened the door and saw an old lady burning wood.

When she saw me and my cousin she said, "Oh, my little kid. I have been waiting for you for years! You finally came. I have been waiting for you for so long."

She knew our names and when I asked her how she knew them. She said she always saw the same four kids in her dreams, and two of us finally came to her.

After a while, she said, "I am sorry, I'm running a little late for cooking. Please sit down."

At first, my cousin and I felt scared being in a stranger's house but she kept talking to us sweetly. This made us feel a lot more comfortable.

As we waited for the food, we started to observe the surroundings. There were lots of toys falling from the upper floor of the house, to where we were sitting.

After a while, the old lady came with the food. It was so delicious that I ended up licking my fingers.

After we were done eating, I asked her about the toys. She told us that she had a one-year-old son who had passed away. She had been saving all his toys. Hearing that made us really sad.

After that we took our leave and promised to come back. She said, "I know you guys are hiking. You should be careful because there are many wild animals."

Her advice proved useful because there, indeed, were many wild animals.

I would really like to visit her again because she made us feel so comfortable and her food was very delicious.

THE BLOODY AND HAUNTED HOUSE

The sun was rising in the mystic skies. The colours in the sky showed many outstanding emotions; from grey to red to orange to purple and it was not blue yet. The birds chirped and sang as if they knew the sky was in a pleasant mood.

I woke up to the sound of the morning prayer call, knowing I would have a great day today. I quickly washed up and prayed the Fajr prayer. After that, I had breakfast with my family.

I was just sitting in my living room when the room filled with laughter. It was my cousins Raahim and Reem barging in with a bang on the poor, old door.

"We are going to the farmhouse," shouted Reem.

"Dad is installing swings there!!" exclaimed Raahim, jumping up and down.

This made me happy and I got excited very quickly.

Hearing the noise, my sister Emaan came down the stairs, as well. As she descended the stairs, she looked outside the window and said, "Wow!" It was clear that she was excited to go out on this beautiful day, as well.

On our way to the farmhouse, we got ice-cream and enjoyed the sunrise.

After finishing our ice-cream, our dad let us walk alongside the road. It was an empty road, and there were no vehicles. We had a lot of time so we walked leisurely.

A while later, we saw a house with smoke rising from it. We followed this smoke to the house. We saw bars around it and there was blood everywhere. I quickly grabbed my cousins' arms and ran away because they were too young to see anything like this.

The rest of the day was peaceful but I will always remember this sight.

A Letter to my Best Friend

26 Shah Jamal,
Monga House,
Lahore, Pakistan.

18th January, 2023.

Dear Areeha,

How are you? Hope you're doing well. I miss you a lot. When will you come to visit me? I hope you are having a good time.

I was thinking if you could come for a sleepover. Anyways, you know I always tell you that I wanted to be an air force pilot, well now I want to become a fashion designer. I also wanted to tell you something interesting and spooky that I witnessed.

A few days ago, I was riding my bicycle and playing in my neighbourhood. There's a house there called HK. Everytime I would cross it, I would fall down. It was very spooky and gave me goosebumps. When I went close to it, I heard screaming. I was sure that it was a Haunted House. It looked like a house from Addam's Family. The house was covered in spiderwebs, and had plants and weeds growing around it.

While I was looking at the house, I saw the swing moving on its own. Immediately after that, I heard cheerful and creepy laughter. I ran away as quickly as I could, and the rest is a mystery. I will tell you the entire thing when you visit.

See you soon.

Yours lovingly,
Eliza.

THE LILAC EGG

Inside a spooky haunted house, my cousins and I saw an egg the size of an ostrich's egg. It was golden and had a foul smell. There was black smoke rising from it. There was a tiny hole on top from which the smoke came out. One of my cousins, Isra, tried to look inside it. She nearly blinded herself. She said, "Owww... it's not funny. Stop laughing!" She also told us that it stung a lot. So, we gave her water to rinse it. But, her eye stays red.

I picked the egg up with one hand (the other hand covering my nose) and stuffed it in my bag, taking it home with us.

When we got home, my mom asked, "Why is her eye red? Her mom will kill me." I said, "Well, we saw an abandoned home with smoke rising out of it sooo..."

"Sooo?" asked mom, "Don't tell me you went inside!"

"We did!" cried my other cousin Areeha.

"Ahh!" my mom gasped, "that is very scary and not a normal thing to do."

"Well, we saw a golden egg with smoke coming out and she (Isma) tried to look inside it."

was my mom's face.

"Well, we brought it home!" my sister Soha added.

"No, Gosh, NO!" said my mom.

"Wait, it's in my bag. Let me show you!" I said.

What?

When I opened my bag, there was a cloud of black smoke coming out, but-b-b-but, it was a Lilac dragon. It was tiny and very cute.

"Her name is hmm-"

"No, Gosh, NO!" mom interrupted.

"Lavender!" I said.

"Ahh!" said Isra with her eyes red.

"Mom can we please keep it?" me and my sister begged.

"N-ye-n-no-ye-YES! It's cute....kind of!"

They were already picked and stocked in towers.

I picked two up, they were as bright as the sun.
I picked some more and it was so fun.

The bunch that I picked up was special to me.
We went to the theater to watch a movie.

When I went home I put them on a table.
Then I sat beside them and wrote a table.

When I went home I put the one on a table.
Then I sat beside them and wrote a table.

A special someone

She welcomes me with heart.
She shelters me with love.
I miss her when I am gone.
I love spending time with her at dawn.

She never tells lies
She is quite wise!
Me and her gaze at the blue skies!
When somebody argues she makes them cut ties!

She has genuine love.
She is graceful as a dove.
She is my beloved and,
She always will be.

سیب

میرا نام سیب۔
 میں ایک پھل ہوں۔
 میرے بہت سے رنگ ہیں
 کبھی میں لال ہوں، کبھی میں سبز ہوں، کبھی میں پیلا ہوں اور میں کبھی میں سوکھا ہوں۔
 میرے اندر بہت سا راس ہے جو سب کو بہت طاقت دیتا ہے۔
 لوگ کہتے ہیں۔
 مجھے کھانے سے کہتے ہیں کہ ڈاکٹر سے دوری رہتی ہے۔
 مجھے کسی بھی طرح سے کھایا جاسکتا ہے۔

 استاد ہمیں پڑھاتے ہیں
 ہم گانے گاتے ہیں
 ہم بہت سچے ہیں

زلزلٹ فوبیا

میں خوش ہوں یا پریشان کہ میرا زلزلٹ آرہا ہے
میں یہ کیسے بھلا دوں کہ میرا زلزلٹ آرہا ہے
خدا کو کیسے بھلا دوں کہ میرا زلزلٹ آرہا ہے
مجھے یاد رکھنا دوستوں کہ میرا زلزلٹ آرہا ہے
دل کو میرے ڈرایا کہ میرا زلزلٹ آرہا ہے

میں اپنا غم کیسے سناؤں، کہ میرا زلزلٹ آرہا ہے
تمہیں ٹرپ کی خوشی ہے لیکن،
کیوں حیران ہو کہ میں نماز پڑھ رہا ہوں
ابو کی ڈانٹ اور امی کی مار سے کیسے بچوں
ماموں، خالہ، چچا سب نے فون گھما کر

جیانہ کا باغ

جیانہ نے ایک باغ لگایا
کھود کے ایک ایک کیاری
پودوں اور پھولوں سے سجایا
اچھے اچھے پودے اگتے
کرتی نرم وہ مٹی ساری
دوست جو اسکو ملنے آتے
آ کر پرندے ان پر چمکتے
وہ بھی اس باغ کا پھل کھاتے

اگر میں اک پرندہ ہوتی!

کاش میں اک پرندہ ہوتی۔ میں ادھر ادھر اڑتی اور میں درخت میں ایک نرم سا گھونسلہ بناتی۔ میں درختوں پر بیٹھ کر گیت گاتی۔ میں صبح صبح دانہ پانی کھاتی۔ میں دوست بناتی اور جودل کرتا میں کرتی۔ کبھی کبھار آسمان کی طرف آہستہ سے اڑتی، کبھی کبھار، میں تیز اڑتی۔ میں مغرب کے وقت پر گھر جاتی۔ صبح صبح میں سورج کی طرف جاتی۔ لوگ مجھ کو قید کرنے کی کوشش کرتے، مگر میں ان کے ہاتھ نہ آتی۔ میرے دوست میرے ساتھ اڑتے۔ ہم بلیوں سے بچتے اور ایک دوسرے کا ساتھ دیتے۔ رات کو دریا سے پانی پیتی۔ کاش میں یہ سب کچھ کر سکتی۔
