PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

As we end another remarkable school year, I would like to take a moment to reflect on the journey we have embarked upon together and express my heartfelt appreciation for your determination and hard work, and also the efforts of your teachers and parents for their unwavering dedication and resilience throughout the year.

This year has been filled with countless triumphs, challenges, and moments of growth, and I couldn't be prouder of each and every one of you. Balancing academic studies with extracurricular activities can provide a well-rounded educational experience, and you, as always, not only excelled in academics but also proved yourselves in extracurricular activities. I am delighted to see students participating in many competitions throughout the year, like the Scholastic Kangaroo Linguistic and Mathematics competitions and won various prizes at different levels. I also commend students who showed their creativity and writing skills by participating in the Bapsi Sidhwa English Essay Writing Competition. I have seen students put in their best efforts from swimming competitions to archery competitions. Not to forget the annual play which is the most awaited event of the year and as always I was delighted to see the confidence of our young performers. What a show it was!

So bidding farewell to class IV & V, I urge you all to take a moment to celebrate the milestones you have achieved. Cherish the friendships and connections you have formed, the lessons you have learned, and the memories that will forever be etched in your hearts. Take the time to express gratitude to your peers, teachers, and mentors who have supported and influenced you along the way. I have no doubt you will go on to accomplish great things. I'd like to congratulate you on your achievements and wish you luck in your future endeavours.

Regards,
Zaira Malik

SENIOR VICE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students, What a great year we've had! I am proud of all that you have accomplished; it's great to see everyone explore their potential by delving into such an extensive range of activities. Too many highlights to name, but let me share a few:

This year we saw Class V showcase Harry Potter & the Sorcerer's Stone, which was a truly impressive spectacle and one which really highlighted the incredible talent we have. Class III & IV put up a spectacular show through their brilliant performance of The Wizard of Oz. I would like to acknowledge the hard work and dedication of our faculty and staff, who continue to go above and beyond in supporting you in all aspects of your lives. I also want to thank your parents for their unwavering support and commitment to their children's education; their contributions have been invaluable to our success.

This year we bid farewell to the students of Class IV and V as they move forward to Learning Alliance Aziz Avenue. It was a pleasure and a privilege to see you all grow into confident young people. I will miss each one of you, and hope you all shall shine bright, wherever you go.

As we look ahead to the summer break and the next school year, I am filled with hope and excitement for all we will accomplish together. I am grateful to be part of this amazing community and look forward to continuing our journey together.

Warm regards,

Faiza Shahzad

VICE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents, Students, and Staff,

As we wrap up another incredible school year, I am filled with immense pride and gratitude for the exceptional achievements and growth we have witnessed in our junior school students. It has been a year of remarkable accomplishments and memorable moments, and I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt appreciation to everyone who contributed to our success.

To our dedicated and passionate teachers, thank you for your unwavering commitment to nurturing our students' minds and hearts. Your creativity, tireless efforts, and ability to inspire have truly made a lasting impact on our students' lives.

To our supportive parents, thank you for entrusting us with your children's education. Your partnership and active involvement have been instrumental in creating a thriving and nurturing learning community.

And to our remarkable students, I applaud your determination, enthusiasm, and hard work throughout the year. Your academic achievements, artistic endeavours, athletic accomplishments, and acts of kindness have made our school a vibrant and inclusive place of learning.

As we reflect on the successes and challenges of this past year, let us also look forward with anticipation and excitement for the opportunities that lie ahead. Together, we will continue to provide an enriching and empowering education for our students, preparing them for a bright future.

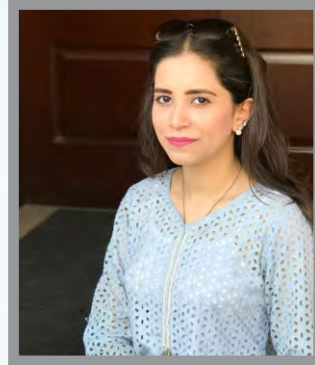

I wish you all a restful and rejuvenating summer break, filled with joyful moments and meaningful connections. Thank you for making this school year a truly exceptional one.

With warm regards,
Tania Sarwar

Wellbeing Department Head's Message

Inclusivity First

In the modern world, we strive to promote 'inclusivity' during a young adult's phase of social development. We encourage inclusivity and acceptance of people along with their physical, mental, economic, and social differences. Why do we do that, one might ask? Why is inclusivity the core we prefer to focus on?

It is proven that inclusivity promotes well-being, lowers cortisol, and boosts growth not only in the individual being included but also in the people who are included in others. In my belief, from the roots of inclusivity stems the plant of belonging and self-esteem that grows into a mighty tree that is 'exclusive' in its form. The cycle of true exclusivity we might say then, begins with inclusivity.

However, sometimes we unknowingly reverse the cycle of nature for our children and ourselves. We promote a sense of being exclusive at an early age, a sense of being different, being better, and deserving more. This feeling of being exclusive separates us from the core human need for belonging resulting in eventual self-doubt and low self-esteem, which could stay with us for the most part of our productive lives.

I call it 'negative exclusivity'. There is evidence of emotional problems directly related to negative exclusivity. Maybe it is time for us to ponder upon the need to seem exclusive, especially as young adults. Maybe it is time to review how this concept could damage vulnerable minds for a lifetime.

Let us promote a natural progression in mental growth and learning. Let us follow the pathway nature shows us. Let us work toward 'Inclusivity first'.

Best wishes,

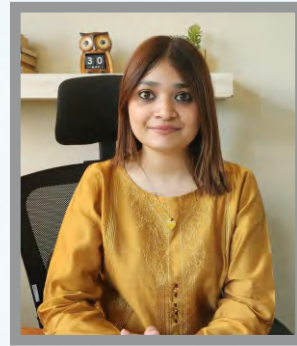

Afshan Mirza,

School Psychologist

The well-being of our students has always been at the core of all our learning and teaching at Learning Alliance. The Student Wellbeing Department continues to conduct awareness and development programs in this regard.

This year our focus was on inclusivity and acceptance. To foster these values among the students, the Student Wellbeing Department (SWD) introduced the 'Me to We' program which came from the 'We School' idea. This program was conducted from Class I to Class VIII, where various activities were conducted to create an awareness of what wellbeing is and how it can be achieved in a group and as individuals.

This term, we also conducted a pilot project of wellbeing classes in classes VI to VIII. These sessions focused on healthy emotion regulation and maintaining healthy circadian rhythms along with a practical approach for exam preparation without an element of stress.

The SWD aims to make our school environment inclusive and empathetic.
